4. Korea & Busan

Korea

The Korean peninsula extends southward from the eastern end of the Asian continent. The lifting and folding of Korea's granite and limestone base has created breathtaking landscapes of scenic hills and valleys.

Korea, lying in the northeastern part of the Asian continent, is a country of a unique and homogeneous culture with a 5,000 year heritage. With its unique cultural and historical heritage, the nation boasts a fascinating blend of the old and new. Numerous ancient temples and shrines, royal palaces, sculptural images, fortresses, folk villages and museums can be found throughout the country.

Today, dynamic Korea pulsates with life and vitality, embracing both modernity and tradition. Korea is striving to become a modern and advanced country while preserving thousands of years of tradition. In the 21st century, Korea is committed to becoming the hub of Northeast Asia.

Busan

Busan popularly known as the Busan Metropolitan City is a principal international port city as well as the second largest city in the Korean Peninsula with close to 4 million people. Its deep harbor and gentle tides have allowed it to grow into the largest container handling port in the country and the third largest in the world, with potential for further growth.

This bustling city is blessed with some of the most spectacular beaches in Korea. Its unique geographical feature with steep hills and deep blue sea makes it one of the most beautiful maritime cities in Asia.

Busan is the ultimate destination for all nature lovers and is recently renowned as an exhibition and convention city. Following the successful hosting major international events such as the ITU telecom Asia 2004, 2005 APEC Leader's Meeting, Busan was ranked top 8 convention city in Asia.
